The Thousand Springs Festival in Hagerman has wrapped up again for another year.

This years festival brought in all the usual music and fun....along with free wagon rides and of course some great food.

The festival was emceed by KMVT'S very own Kim Bartlett.

We caught up with a few people at the festival today...and asked them what the best part of their day was so far.

Erica Hernandez, working festival:

"The music! I love the music, i'm waiting for bob nor to come on he's my favorite, he plays the macarena so..."

Pooyan Seddigh, 12 years old:

"The eagles and the snakes..."

Alex Goedheart, Jerome:

"The arts and crafts were definitely great..."

It was a perfect day to sit outside and listen to some great tunes...like the jazz group red and grey who came down from Boise to play at thousand springs.
